

GASTON DAY SCHOOL

5 GREAT REASONS WHY GASTON DAY IS AN ESSENTIAL INVESTMENT

STABILITY

Business as Usual

During this evolving time, learning continues on campus and virtually. Daily class schedules are modified, gathering through chats, calls, and group meetings but providing consistency and stability we all need right now. We are proud to continue our mission to educate our students and prepare them for academic success and responsible, productive lives.

ADAPTABILITY

Successful Transition

We were ready to shift to virtual learning and so were our students! While already using virtual learning in certain subjects - it made for a smooth transition. Others scrambled to come up with a plan but we were able to pivot and be flexible. Our team continues to learn new techniques and modes of communication that best fit our students needs.

COMMUNITY

Virtual Gatherings

Staying connected is important and not just for learning but for FUN! We continue to hold Community Homeroom, have athletic practices, offer game night, daily workout sessions and Facebook Live Family Challenges. Our food service provider, Sparty's, is preparing home-cooked meals for families. School goes beyond books, it's also the bond we have with each other.
GDS United.

ENGAGEMENT

Open to Everyone

During this time we have many initiatives that make us proud to be part of GDS. A faculty member is involved with a local effort to make masks, using 3D technology, for people on the front lines. Students writing support letters to medical staff, Lower School students sending pictures of virtual hugs to essential workers. Even individuals outside the GDS Community are welcome to take part in our efforts, classes, and gatherings.

PEACE OF MIND

Familiarity & Connection

At Gaston Day we're family. We personally know our students, our parents, our alumni, our grandparents, our donors, and prospective families that have reached out to us. We're strong and we're in this together. Let us be your rock during this evolving time. We've got your back- we'll make sure you get through.
Spartan Strong.
