

Gaston Day School is an independent, coeducational day school for 500 students in grades PS-12.

POSITION PURPOSE:

In order to ensure consistent staffing of all our athletics teams, Gaston Day School accepts applications for coaching positions on an ongoing basis. Applicants who submit their materials for future openings will be contacted if an opening becomes available in their area of interest/expertise. Positions are part-time and focused on one of three seasons: fall (August-October), winter (October-February), or spring (February-May). The daily work schedule will vary slightly according to specific team practice and competition schedules, but will generally be focused on a 3-6pm time slot, Monday-Friday. Weekend work is occasionally required.

ESSENTIAL FUNCTIONS:

- Supervision and instruction of student-athletes during all team activities
- Maintenance and inventory of team equipment and apparel
- Regular communication with team parents and athletics program staff regarding team activities
- Attendance at required team and interscholastic athletics program meetings
- Support of multi-sport participation for student-athletes
- Promotion of balanced achievement in all areas of school life for student-athletes
- Compliance with all Gaston Day School, Metrolina Athletic Conference, and North Carolina Independent Schools Athletic Association policies and procedures.

QUALIFICATIONS:

Successful candidates must be available for all practices and competitions during the coaching season. Experience coaching at some level is preferred, but not required. Additionally, candidates must satisfactorily complete a criminal background check. Some coaching positions may require additional experience or other qualifications.

Reporting: The GDS Coaching Staff reports directly to the Director of Athletics.

Contact: To apply, please email cover letter and resume to Casey Field, Director of Athletics, at cfield@gastonday.org.

Gaston Day School is committed to increasing the racial, ethnic, and religious diversity of our faculty and staff. The School welcomes applicants who would bring additional dimensions to the school's teaching mission.
