

FROM THE DESK OF THE Head of School

Dear New Gaston Day Families,

We're excited that your family is now part of our community; it's a big moment, and we couldn't be happier to officially call you Spartans.

You should have already received a few emails from your division heads that included information about our New Parent Reception on August 6 at 6:30 p.m. We hope you'll join us that evening. It's a great opportunity to connect, learn more about life at our school, and feel the energy of what's ahead.

Being a Gaston Day Spartan means more than just attending a school. It means joining a community that believes in character, connection, and continuous growth. Our core values—curiosity, courage, compassion, and integrity—guide everything we do, in and out of the classroom.

This is an exciting time at our school. We're growing, not just in numbers, but in possibility. New programs, new spaces, and new opportunities are creating even more ways for students to explore, lead, and thrive.

We're so glad you're here. Welcome to a place where your family matters, your child is known, and your story becomes part of something bigger.

It's A Great Day to be a Spartan!

With warmest regards,
